BRIEF ABSTRACT OF LETTER.

Complain against the management of affairs of the above temple

NOTES AND ORDERS

The ~~complaints~~ allegations made are briefly the following.

(i) Though there are 5 Dharmadarsis appointed for the temple, the affairs are managed solely by [illegible] Venkatarayappa one of the Dharmadarsis and the other Dharmadarsis allow him to do as he pleases.

2) The amounts sanctioned annually by Govt. for the expenses of the Car festival of the temple are not spent for the purposes for which they are intended and much of the money is appropriated by the said Venkatarayappa for his own private use.

3) As the ticket books require for Collection of fees During the jatra are got printed by the said Venkatarayappa who does not either get the books numbered or make known to others the number of books he gets printed, all the fees Collected are not brought on the accounts subd. to Govt ~~but~~ and part of the receipts are misappropriated by him.

The petitioners therefore pray that either the Muzrai Supdt. or some other responsible officer may be requested to inspect the place at the time of the jatra and check the accounts and that the present Dharmadarsis may be replaced by respectable persons who are better interested in the good management of the affairs of the institution

From page ×3 of the office Notes in the file (M 7 ×247-12) put up herewith, it is seen that a sum of Rs 500/- had been sanctioned for the jatra expense of 1912 and that ~~the~~ a sum of Rs 525-13-9 was actually incurred, most of the excess being borne by the Dharmadarsis

Subd for orders, with a draft calling for a report from the Dy Comr. (As the petitioners ~~state that~~ belong to 3 different taluks and as none of them have given their address no endorsement has been put up)

3 From the Dy: Commr., letter No. 425
d 2-5-13

States that Mr M. G. Krishnaswami Rao, Sub-Dn offr of Chikballapur, reports, after personal enquiry, that there is no use in investigating the receipts and expenditure of the Temple of the previous years; that the whole management having been left in the hands of Venkatrayappa, Dharmadarsi of the temple, the expenditure rose from year ~~by~~ to year; and that the expenditure was, under his instructions and guidance, reduced by Rs 300/- during the car procession & jatra of 1913.

The Dy: Commr is of opinion that, as the affairs of the temple are being managed by the Amildar under the instructions of the Sub-Dn officer, no further action in the matter is called for.

The above fact does not appear to be quite borne out by the Sub-Dn officer's report. He says that during the jamabandy time during 1913 the jatra expenditure was reduced by Rs 300 under his instructions and that particularly the management should be left in the hands of five dharmadarsis to be newly appointed — 2 by nomination and 3 by people's election — as desired by the people. J

NOTE—Continuation sheet.

K L The statement given by the petitioners before the Sub-Dn offr and the statement of Venkatrayappa applying for time for furnishing his explanation as regards the alleged irregularities, have also been forwarded.

As the Dy. Comr says nothing in ~~the~~ his letter about the appointment of dharmadarsis as desired by the petitioners, it a point for orders as to ~~further~~ whether further enquiry may be made in the matter.

4/7 The letter may be recorded and the Dy Commr asked to submit a list of Dharmadarsees for the approval of Govt.

V. R. Thyagaraja Iyer, Esquire., B.A.,
Secretary to the Government of Mysore,
Revenue Department, MUZRAI BRANCH, Bangalore.

Sir,

Adverting to your Office memorandum No.1871/Muz.F.532-18 dated 23rd April 1913, calling for report on the petition of certain -- devotees of the Sri Venkataramanaswami Temple at Talakayalkonda in the Sidlaghatta Taluk, bringing to notice certain irregularities in the -- management of the affairs of the Institution, I have the honor to state that the petition received with the above was referred to the Sub Division Officer, Chickballapur, for personal enquiry and report.

2. Mr. M.S. Krishnaswami Rao, Sub Division Officer, reports after personal enquiry, that there is no use in investigating the receipts and expenditure of the Temple of the previous years, and that it is -- learnt, that the whole management having been left in the hands of Venkatramanna, Dharmadarsi of the Temple, the expenditure has risen gradually year by year. While camping at Dibburhalli and conducting Jamabandi -- during the time of the Jatra of 1913, the expenditure was reduced by -- Rs.70/- as per his instructions in the matter.

3. As the affairs of the Temple are being managed by the Amildar under the instructions of the Sub Division Officer, it seems to me, that no further action is necessary in the matter.

4. The vernacular file of correspondence ending with the -- Chickaballapur Sub Division Officer's Yadi No.575 dated 24/26th October 1914, is herewith submitted for reference.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
